

ONSTAGE IN UTAH

artsandmuseums.utah.gov > opportunities > funding > onstage in utah

Performing arts presenters play an important role in linking artists with Utah audiences. OnStage in Utah is competitive funding that is available to Utah presenters to support a public performance and a separate educational outreach activity. This funding can be used to bring in an in-state or out-of-state performing artist.

BOOKING CONFERENCES

artsandmuseums.utah.gov > programs > performing arts

Booking conferences are gathering places for performing arts professionals. These conferences provide opportunities for artists and organizations to market their work and network with other professionals in the field. The performing arts program provides funding for individual performing artists as well as performing arts presenters to attend these regional booking conferences.

PERFORMING ARTISTS: PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT/CAREER ADVANCEMENT

artsandmuseums.utah.gov > programs > performing arts

The Performing Arts Program provides funding to support the professional development and career advancement of performing artists. This funding is specifically designed to help individuals who are professionally engaged in the performing arts. Projects can include but are not limited to: creation/design of marketing materials, conference registration, professional development, equipment purchase, and more.

MONDAYS IN THE PARK

artsandmuseums.utah.gov > events > mondays in the park

Mondays in the Park is an outdoor summer concert series on the lawn of the Chase Home in Liberty Park, free of charge. The concerts feature craft folk artists and performing folk artists on Monday evenings in July and August.

UTAH PRESENTERS

artsandmuseums.utah.gov > programs > performing arts

Our program maintains a comprehensive list of Utah Presenters for the use of performing artists and other presenters. The Performing Arts Program partners with a consortium of Utah Presenters which connect with each other to foster collaboration, arrange block booking, provide professional development training, and raise public awareness of the value of arts in communities.

PERFORMING ARTS NEWSLETTER

artsandmuseums.utah.gov > programs > performing arts

A bi-monthly newsletter is sent to performing artists and presenters throughout the state. The newsletter contains information about upcoming events as well as local and national opportunities.

WORKSHOPS

artsandmuseums.utah.gov > programs > performing arts

Professional development workshops are held through the year to support the advancement of performing artists and presenters. Webinars are held annually in partnership with WESTAF to train presenters in accessing their TourWest Grant.

PERFORMING ARTS STAFF

Jason Bowcutt
801.236.7554
jbowcutt@utah.gov

artsandmuseums.utah.gov > programs > performing arts

Get the latest information on resources and events.

facebook.com/utahartsandmuseums

The Performing Arts Staff is located at:

Glendinning Mansion
617 E South Temple
Salt Lake City, UT 84102
801.236.7555
Hours: M - F, 8 - 5 PM

PERFORMING arts

Programs and Services