Questions Asked:

- What changes are you making to your organization? Or your work? In what ways are you pivoting?
- What are you yearning for? What can Arts & Museums do to support you at this time?
 - Professional development
 - resources (sharing of good articles and trainings offered by other agencies by email),
 - Connections with a mentor in the field,
 - Virtual connection with peers (like this)

Things We Heard:

1. Work life balance is hard, especially with kids at home.
 2. We are all waiting. Waiting for a date when we can start to ease into “normal” activities. Waiting for funding.
 3. Trying to put events/activities online quickly
 4. Trying NOT to make changes during this time.

5. Trying to stay positive.
 6. The power of humanity right now. "Humanities are not just nice to have but a must have".
 7. Keep hearing about change. Some are succeeding in pivoting or changing, some feel they are struggling.
 8. Heard just how good it was to see one another. Emphasized the need for connection.
 9. Some changes that are taking place now will likely maintain even when things return to "normal".
