GETTING THERE & GETTING AROUND

1. Entrances, Parking & Pathways
 - a. The main entrance is on the North side of the building. There is a large parking lot which is accessed off "H" Street that is for Utah Arts & Museums and the Governor's mansion. On rare occasions, the parking lot can become full if there is an event at the Governor's mansion.
 - b. Sidewalks lead to the main entrance. The Glendinning sits uphill from South Temple and there is a slight incline if you are traveling from South Temple to the main entrance. There is a ramp and automatic door.
 - c. The entrance on the South side of the building is only open for Gallery Stroll events. A short set of stairs with hand railing leads to this door.
 - d. The parking lot is on the north side of the building accessible via H

Street. There are 2 parking spaces reserved for ADA accessibility approximately 100 ft from the north entrance.

2. Public Transit

- a. There are bus stops located close to the Glendinning Home, both slightly East and West on South Temple. The easiest bus route is the 209. The Utah Transit Authority trip planner found at <https://www.rideuta.com/rider-tools/trip-planner> is useful for planning your visit. Please note that the destination should be set to Utah Division of Arts & Museums, or 617 E. South Temple, Salt Lake City, Utah.

3. Visitors with Limited Mobility

- a. Entry to the Glendinning is available via a ground-level graded entry off the parking lot on the North Side.
- b. The first floor and Alice Gallery are wheelchair/stroller accessible. The second floor of offices is only accessible via stairs. The Glendinning Home does not have an elevator or lifts.

4. Restrooms

- a. There are two gender neutral restrooms available near the main entrance. Both restrooms are wheelchair accessible and have bars.

5. Services Animals

- a. Service animals that are trained to do work or perform tasks for a person with a disability are welcome. Non-service animals, or pets whose function is to provide emotional support and comfort are not permitted.
- b. In order to bring a service animal into the Glendinning Home, the animal must be harnessed, leashed or tethered, unless the device interferes with the service animal's work or the individual's disability prevents the use of the harness.
- c. A water bowl for service animals can be provided upon request.

Alice Gallery

- a. The gallery is on the first floor and is wheelchair/stroller accessible.
- b. The Alice Gallery consists of two rooms. Viewing the gallery requires brief periods of movement. Seating in the gallery can be made available upon request.
- c. When possible, artworks displayed on pedestals are at comfortable viewing height for seated and standing patrons.

- d. Artwork didactic labels use larger print, higher contrast and are at a comfortable height for ease of reading for seated and standing patrons.
- e. The gallery is lit by general overhead lights and spotlights that are focused on the art. In most exhibitions there is no sound associated with the exhibit, however, there will likely be some ambient sounds from other visitors and staff in the adjacent offices.
- f. If desired, visitors are welcome to bring their own appropriate sensory soothing tools. An appropriate sensory tool would be one that does not cause harm to other patrons, the gallery, or the artworks on display.
