OVERVIEW

Folk Arts Apprenticeships enable qualified individuals to study with traditional mentors of Utah's ethnic, Native, rural, and occupational communities who demonstrate a commitment to passing on cultural knowledge.

Funding assists accomplished mentors in sharing their skills with one or two apprentices of the same cultural community. There may be extenuating circumstances where three or more apprentices could be part of the same program. If you are planning to apply with more than two apprentices, please contact Folk Arts Coordinator Ian Hallagan, ihallagan@utah.gov or 801-645-2821 for approval and instructions for applying. Apprentice(s) and Mentor should complete their application together. If awarded, the check will be written to the mentor. The mentor will receive a 1099 form for tax reporting purposes. This income may be subject to individual income tax.

- ❖ Mentor and apprentice(s) must design a work plan for their project with a clearly articulated timeline, budget, and end product.

- ❖ Apprenticeships can be conducted through short-term, intensive educational meetings, or be taught over a period of several months.
- ❖ Folk Arts Apprenticeship awardees must coordinate a site visit for documentation of the project with the Utah Division of Arts & Museums (UA&M) Folk Arts program staff during the course of the project.
- ❖ There must be a public presentation of the completed work after the conclusion of the project. There are many different forms of presentation that qualify under this requirement. It is strongly encouraged to discuss plans with the UA&M Folk Arts Coordinator before applying. We want to help you with this process.
- ❖ Arts forms considered “folk” or “traditional” are often shared within a community, family, or group and passed down between members of a shared community. Traditional art forms can vary greatly in medium and method. Performing arts such as singing, dancing, and drumming may qualify, as can crafts like weaving, custom gearmaking, and woodcarving. Other art forms, such as cultural foodways and traditional music, may qualify for a Folk Arts grant.
- ❖ Public presentations during the period of the apprenticeship may include demonstrations, public performances, workshops, and exhibitions, among others. These presentations should aim to strengthen the cultural heritage of your community or geographic region, and increase public awareness of traditional artistic expression in Utah.

DEFINITIONS

- Tradition - a skill, craft, or art form shared between members of the same cultural community learned in informal settings by observation and imitation.
- Cultural Community - a group of people with a shared identity: ethnic, tribal, occupational, religious, or regional.
- Occupational Communities - The various skills, techniques, expressions, and customs performed within a certain line of work.
- Folk or Traditional Artist - a skilled practitioner of a traditional art form learned within the artist’s own culture, creates work for use within their own cultural community.

WHO CAN APPLY?

- Mentors/Tradition Bearers who are recognized within their community.

- Applicants are eligible for apprenticeship grant funding every other year. If you were awarded funding in FY24, you will not be eligible for this category again until FY26.
- If a mentor is approached by multiple apprentices, the requests should be combined and submitted as one application. If you are planning to apply with more than two apprentices, please contact Folk Arts Coordinator Ian Hallagan, ihallagan@utah.gov or 801-645-2821 before applying.
- Emerging traditional artists and/or apprentices.
- Due to limited financial resources, UA&M may take into consideration and prioritize first-time applicants who have not received funding from UA&M since July 1, 2021.

FUNDS MAY BE USED FOR

- Mentor's teaching fee.
- In-state travel expense (mileage) for participating artists (we cannot pay for food or lodging from this grant).
- Supplies, tools, and other materials directly related to the project (excluding the purchase of musical instruments, outfits, or costumes).
- Space rental for teaching or performance purposes.
- Other costs directly associated with the proposed project.

WHAT WE CANNOT FUND

- Recreations of historical artifacts or reenactments of lifestyles and/or folk traditions from the distant past.
- Academic awards and/or work, including: fellowships, grants, or tuition fees for student work; as well as in-school curriculum projects and/or projects that are part of a required course or curriculum.
- Applications that do not have a direct connection to the community and the tradition being taught will not be considered.
- Most mentors and/or apprentices outside of the state of Utah are not eligible for funding. For the purposes of the Folk Arts Apprenticeship Grant, a Native American Indian mentor of the same tribal affiliation as an applicant may be funded outside of Utah's geographic boundaries. The apprentice must be a Utah resident. Contact the Folk Arts Coordinator before applying to discuss the proposed apprenticeship in greater detail.
- Projects completed prior to July 1, 2024.

If completing the application online, the mentor must be the one to create an account and submit the apprenticeship application.

APPLICATION QUESTIONS

GENERAL INFORMATION (not scored)

- On the first page of your application, provide a 2-3 sentence description of the tradition to be taught, as well as the names of mentor and apprentice(s) under "description."
- Basic contact information for mentor and apprentice.
- Agreement to provide the mentor's U.S. Tax ID Number (Social Security Number or ITIN) if the application is funded. A mentor without a U.S. Tax ID Number cannot be funded.

Each question is paired with an explanation of the criteria used by the review panel, and can be a helpful guide when writing your answers.

MENTOR INFORMATION (40%)

QUESTION:

Describe in detail the cultural tradition or art form that will be taught.

WHAT WE'RE LOOKING FOR:

Assume you are presenting a tradition to someone who knows nothing about it. Please first describe the tradition. Then, you may describe who typically practices this tradition, how it is practiced, what the purpose is that it serves in the community, and how it is typically taught. Please include the information that you feel best describes the tradition (up to 2,500 characters).

QUESTION:

Describe the mentor's cultural background, when and where the mentor learned the tradition, who they learned from, and how long they have practiced this tradition.

WHAT WE'RE LOOKING FOR:

Here, we are wanting to learn more about the background of the mentor. Explain the mentor's relationship to the art form. Where was the art form learned? Who was it learned from (grandparent, parent, teacher, etc.)? Cultural background can be described as: ethnicity, religion, geographic region, or occupation. Please indicate what type of cultural categories apply to the application.

QUESTION (optional):

If the mentor and apprentice(s) are part of the same family, clearly explain why Utah Arts & Museums funding is necessary to teach or pass on this tradition.

WHAT WE'RE LOOKING FOR:

Inform the panel what challenges or barriers (economic or otherwise) prevent the mentor from passing on the tradition in daily life/regular interaction. This can include topics such as distance, transportation limitations, work/life obligations, and other factors (up to 2,000 characters).

QUESTION:

Upload three quality work samples that demonstrate the mentor's mastery of the tradition/art form.

WHAT WE'RE LOOKING FOR:

Work samples can include audio recordings, pictures, or videos. The work sample should show mastery of the specific tradition as practiced by the mentor. If you have a longer video, upload a PDF with a link to the video and recommend a specific segment to watch (such as begin at time marker 7:42 and end at time marker 11:15). The Folk Arts Coordinator can assist you with preparing relevant work samples prior to submission of your application. Please keep videos brief (no more than 5 minutes each). If the project involves performing artists, a video will help assist the panel in determining artistic excellence.

QUESTION:

Please identify any individuals or important elements featured in the work samples submitted above (in order of submission). The work samples should reflect previous experience with the tradition being taught.

WHAT WE'RE LOOKING FOR:

Provide information on what the work sample is, and what the review panel should focus on (i.e. art form, individuals, year created). Be sure to include work from both the mentor and the apprentice. Where possible, submit samples that include both the mentor and apprentice together. If there are samples submitted that include people not involved in the apprenticeship, be sure to specify this in your description as well (up to 2,000 characters).

QUESTION:

Upload one to three letters of support for the mentor and the project.

WHAT WE'RE LOOKING FOR:

Letters may be from former students, workshop attendees, community leaders in your cultural community, or others who can discuss your abilities in the art form being taught. The letters should address the mentor's level of knowledge and experience with the tradition, their impact on and relationships with the cultural community represented, and why it is important that this tradition be passed on. Signed letters should be addressed to the Utah Division of Arts & Museums and uploaded to the application. Letters are required and the application cannot be submitted without at least one.

APPRENTICE INFORMATION (30%)

QUESTION:

Describe the apprentice's cultural background, as needed, to explain his or her relationship to the tradition.

WHAT WE'RE LOOKING FOR:

Help the panel verify that the selected apprentice is of the same cultural community as the mentor. This can be an opportunity to discuss your relationship to the tradition in greater detail, such as growing up around the tradition, how you first got interested in learning the tradition, and why the tradition is important to you (up 2,000 characters).

QUESTION:

What projects have the mentor and apprentice already worked on together, if any?

WHAT WE'RE LOOKING FOR:

If the mentor and apprentice are already working together, explain this existing relationship in greater detail. Discuss what has been learned so far, and how this would continue through the apprenticeship. Explain the current working relationship between the teacher and apprentice and identify any successes or challenges, if applicable. Preference may be given to apprentices with an existing relationship to the mentor (up 2,000 characters).

QUESTION:

Describe the apprentice's experience level with learning and practicing the tradition: novice, experienced practitioner, emerging mentor, etc.

WHAT WE'RE LOOKING FOR:

Explain what knowledge or skills the apprentice is already bringing to the study of the art form or tradition at the time of this application. Provide an overview of the level of experience the apprentice currently has, and how the apprenticeship would help you continue your education in the tradition. If you are applying for more than one apprentice, please include information on each applicant (up 2,000 characters).

QUESTION:

Upload up to three high-quality work samples to demonstrate the apprentice's prior experience with the tradition/art form.

WHAT WE'RE LOOKING FOR:

Just like we need to see samples of the mentor's work, we also need to see samples of the apprentice(s) work. Work samples can include audio recordings, pictures, or videos and should show mastery of the specific tradition. Links to YouTube videos are acceptable. The Folk Arts Coordinator can assist you with preparing relevant work samples prior to submission of your application. You must clearly identify the important elements of each sample (i.e. individuals, art form, year created) in the descriptive field. Please keep videos brief (no more than five minutes each). If the project involves performing artists, a video will help assist the panel in determining artistic excellence.

QUESTION:

Please identify any individuals or important elements featured in the work samples submitted above (in order of submission).

WHAT WE'RE LOOKING FOR:

Tell the reviewers what work sample is, and what they should focus on (i.e. art form, individuals, year created). Be sure to include work from both the mentor as well as the apprentice. Where possible, submit samples that include both the mentor and apprentice together. If there are samples submitted that include people not involved in the apprenticeship, be sure to include that in the explanation for the panel (up to 2,000 characters).

PROJECT PLAN/TIMELINE (30%)

QUESTION:

What is your proposed timeline for completion of the project?

WHAT WE'RE LOOKING FOR:

Clearly define the amount of time it will take to complete your project. Include hours/days/weeks and the time frame (dates) you plan to host/hold your trainings, meetings, workshops etc. This will help the panel determine whether the proposed project can be completed within the grant timeframe. List the total number of meetings/lessons per week/month and how many hours each will last (up 1,500 characters).

QUESTION:

Will the apprentice(s) complete any work between meetings?

WHAT WE'RE LOOKING FOR:

Describe any new skills that will be practiced outside of meetings between mentor and apprentice. In this question, you will aim to show what work the apprentice(s) will learn on their own after meetings (up 1,500 characters).

QUESTION:

Describe your plan for a public presentation such as location, potential dates, and promotion.

WHAT WE'RE LOOKING FOR:

Public presentations may take a variety of forms beyond performances or exhibits; a key requirement is that they must be accessible to the public. Web-based presentations, blogs, or YouTube videos are acceptable, but applicants should discuss these ideas with the Folk Arts Coordinator prior to application submission. All public presentations must clearly indicate sponsorship by the Utah Division of Arts & Museums and the National Endowment for the Arts. (up 2,000 characters).

QUESTION:

Provide a list of all necessary project supplies associated with the apprenticeship, and how/where they will be obtained.

WHAT WE'RE LOOKING FOR:

We understand that for some art forms, supplies can be a large percentage of the budget. Please provide a detailed overview of the supplies needed for the apprenticeship, as well as where/how these supplies will be obtained. Your explanation of your supplies might include descriptions such as what you will purchase, rent, gather, borrow, have specially made, etc. Any supplies purchased must relate back to the apprenticeship (up 2,000 characters).

QUESTION:

Fill out the FY25 Folk Arts Apprenticeship Budget sheet and upload it to this question.

WHAT WE'RE LOOKING FOR:

The budget sheet can be found on our website

If you have any questions about the budget or any other element of the grant, please call UA&M staff.

REVIEW PROCESS

Funding awards made by the Utah Division of Arts & Museums (UA&M) support arts, museums, and cultural experiences in communities statewide. Apprenticeship grants are intended to provide Utah residents with opportunities to participate in cultural activities. Review panels work diligently to evaluate grants based on cultural merit, sound fiscal management, and ability to reach a broad community.

Eligible applications will be reviewed by UA&M staff and a panel of community professionals. (We welcome applicants to participate as panel reviewers). Each review panel will evaluate applications based on the criteria outlined in the guidelines. All apprenticeship grant allocations are approved by either the Utah Museum Services Advisory board or the Utah Arts Advisory board. The appropriate board will review and approve final funding recommendations, and may consider a special exception to these guidelines based on agency priorities. UA&M is a state agency that provides public funding for arts and museums. As a public entity, it reserves the right to make final decisions about the use of public funds for projects, programs, acquisitions, commissions, or other activities as deemed appropriate by the Division and/or board. No organization or individual is guaranteed funding from one year to the next. Funding levels are contingent on many factors, including resources available, number of applications, the information that you provide in your application, and meeting the criteria as specified in these guidelines.

UA&M takes the responsibility of awarding public funding seriously. UA&M carefully follows grant review and award procedures as permitted by statute and board policies. UA&M reserves the right to revoke awarded public funds (current, multi-year, and/or future) as deemed necessary. The revocation of any public funds will be taken under consideration by the appropriate state advisory board.
